

The Benefit Category Nobody Offers Yet

The Market Gap

35% of employees say housing costs are their #1 financial stressor — ahead of healthcare and retirement savings. Yet no major benefits platform offers a dedicated housing benefit beyond one-time relocation stipends. SweetLease fills this gap.

What SweetLease Does

We aggregate employee demand by geography and negotiate group rent discounts with landlords — the same leverage corporate housing companies use, but accessible to individual employees through your benefits platform.

Why This Matters for Your Platform

First-Mover Advantage — Be the first benefits platform to offer a dedicated housing benefit category. No competitor has this yet.

High Engagement — Housing is a top-3 monthly expense for every renter. Unlike niche perks, this drives real utilization.

Simple Integration — White-label or co-branded. We handle landlord relationships and negotiation. You add a new category.

The Model

- White-label or co-branded integration into your marketplace
- Revenue share on employee signups through your platform
- SweetLease handles all landlord relationships, negotiation, and fulfillment
- Your platform gets a new high-engagement benefit category
